

Call for Nominations

On Wednesday, October 13, 2010, the Fourth Annual Hall of Fame Awards will be presented. All MBC members are invited to nominate a company or organization. This is an opportunity to recognize a client or organization in the design or construction industry for extraordinary achievements. Below is all the information you need to contribute to an outstanding evening for the construction community.

Overview

The MBC Hall of Fame provides a forum for the building industry to recognize, celebrate and publicize the work of exemplary companies whose longstanding contributions have lasting impact on the industry, the community, and the clients we serve.

The awards will be presented at the MBC Annual Dinner. Awards will recognize outstanding companies or organizations selected from the anchor disciplines which make up the MBC:

- Owners
- Architects
- Engineers
- Construction Managers and General Contractors
- Subcontractors
- Construction Professional Services (legal, accounting, insurers, etc.)
- Suppliers/Vendors
- Labor

Nomination Process

Nominations are invited from MBC members. An awards jury of five active MBC members will be appointed to solicit nominations, review candidates and oversee the administration of the awards. The MBC president and president-elect will be ex officio members of the jury.

Nominations must come from MBC members, though nominees and honorees need not be members. The burden of responsibility falls on the person nominating to provide the information needed to justify the candidate's induction.

Criteria for selecting Hall of Fame companies:

- Has consistently contributed to the advancement of the design and construction industry with significant achievements in one or more of four key areas:
  - Community involvement and philanthropy
  - Project innovation
  - Association leadership and industry collaboration
  - Environmental stewardship and sustainability
- Has demonstrated leadership and integrity in the design and construction industry for a minimum of ten years as a company.
- Has advanced the design and construction industry through staff and client relations achievements which promote team collaboration, project excellence and client service.

Deadline: June 15, 2010
